BIT Division Self-Select Questions

Common questions or statements for the BIT Division:

- I am interested in many areas of business.
- I like to work on a variety of projects and tasks at the same time.
- I can work alone or with a team.
- I enjoy learning about what motivates people to do their best.
- I have good written and oral communications skills.
- I am a people person, yet enjoy working with technology.
- I enjoy solving problems.

Program-Specific Questions or Statements:

Accounting:
- I am very detailed-oriented.
- I enjoy doing research and have a high level of critical reading ability.
- I have great analytical skills and take pleasure in analyzing, comparing, and interpreting data.
- I am interested in a profession that frequently challenges me.

Administrative Professional:
- I like being active on the job.
- I am interested in completing a variety of tasks in the business office.
- I enjoy “taking the lead” on projects.
- I love working with technology and people.

Business Management:
- I enjoy helping people solve problems to become more efficient workers by monitoring and evaluating performance.
- I want to understand the business environment and how businesses develop plans to be competitive.
- I am interested in organizing tasks that support a business plan, including developing budgets, managing operations, and tracking progress to achieve business goals.
- I am interested in starting my own business.

Culinary Arts:
- I love to experiment in the kitchen.
- I like it when people enjoy the food I make.
- I am interested in food service and creating excellent dining experiences for customers.
- I can see myself managing all the areas of a restaurant including menu planning, hiring and training staff, budgeting, and food safety.

Early Childhood Education:
- I enjoy being around young children.
• I like creating learning activities that help children grow.
• I am interested in child development stages and growth.
• I get a kick out of seeing children grasp new concepts.

Human Resources:
• I like meeting new people and figuring out how they may fit into our organization.
• I enjoy welcoming new people to the organization.
• I like to show people how to do things. I like teaching people.
• I appreciate a fair and respectful workplace; and promote wellness and safety-first attitudes.

IT-Information Systems Security Specialist:
• I like learning about and working with leading-edge computer technology.
• I enjoy helping people and enterprises solve critical problems.
• I enjoy writing, speaking, and making presentations to communicate complex ideas to ordinary people.
• I like "multitasking", such as working on a variety of projects and tasks at the same time.

IT-Network Specialist:
• Have you taught yourself about technology in order to fulfill a personal goal such as creating a blog, a website, or a database for your movie collection?
• Do you feel you have to have the latest technology?
• Do you insist on setting-up your own computer network at home?
• Do your family and friends come to you for computer questions and you like it?

IT-Web Analyst/Programmer:
• I like using the Internet.
• I like puzzles and figuring out different ways to put things together (recipes or algorithms).
• I would like to learn how to create things that end-up on the Internet.
• I am interested in working to solve typical and not-so-typical business problems.

Legal Administrative Professional:
• I find laws and regulations to be very interesting.
• I like to be challenged by focusing on procedures and specific details.
• I love the variety of working with legal documents and technology applications.
• I enjoy using my detail-focused brain in my job for scheduling, research, reports, and more.

Marketing:
• I enjoy using my ideas to create really cool things in a variety of media (paper, software, website, video, etc.).
• I love using social media and the Internet to connect with people.
• I enjoy working in a fast-paced environment with very diverse customers.
• I enjoy selling things. I often think about starting my own business and making lots of money with my ideas.
Medical Administrative Specialist:
- I am fascinated by medical terms and procedures.
- I enjoy researching for details and compiling reports that require sound reasoning.
- I like the idea of working in the healthcare field in an office setting.
- I love working with technology to produce excellent documents and records.