

Law Enforcement Leadership Utilizing Best Practices For Police Chiefs, Sheriffs, and Command Officers

March 20 or Sept. 10

8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. • Cost: $125 (Lunch included)

Instructor: Gregory J. Anderson (Retired)

Policies, Practices, Solutions

With recent public and legal scrutiny at the forefront of the news, law enforcement agencies must be prepared to meet these challenges. "Law Enforcement Leadership Utilizing Best Practices" provides clear and concise examples faced by agencies as well as the policies and practices to overcome these vulnerabilities.

This 8-hour workshop designed specifically for command staff focuses on the critical issues that law enforcement leaders face today in their efforts to lead staff in large and small agencies.

Topics Include:

- Leadership
- Use of Force
- Recruiting/Applicant Backgrounds
- Trainings
- How to prevent discipline issues from occurring
- Best practices
- Media relations and discipline cases

Gregory J. Anderson

Chief of Police (Oak Forest, IL) and former Deputy Chief of the Aurora IL Police Department

Gregory rose through the ranks with over 30 years in law enforcement. Chief Anderson has provided instruction extensively on leadership and internal affairs and is a consultant to police departments on police leadership and discipline issues.

Greg is the current President of On-Target Training Solutions, a consortium of law enforcement professionals that provides relevant and highly acclaimed training to law enforcement agencies nationally.

To register, or for more information, contact:
(608) 757-7630 • blackhawk.edu

